Adrian R. King, Jr. is a Co-Practice Leader of Ballard Spahr LLP's Gaming Group. He regularly represents clients before federal, state, and local executive and administrative agencies, including the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (PGCB) and the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission. Adrian has represented casino operators, manufacturers, suppliers and individual licensees in Pennsylvania since the inception of Pennsylvania gaming in 2006. He has handled competitive application proceedings and a wide variety of licensing, compliance and transaction approval matters. Among his clients are two of the largest regional casino operators in the United States. In addition, Adrian has held several high-level roles within Pennsylvania state government. In 2013–2014, he was First Deputy Attorney General. In 2003–2005, Adrian served as Deputy Chief of Staff to the Governor where, among other things, he served as the Governor's liaison to the PGCB (during its formation). In 2005, he joined the Governor's cabinet and served as Director of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency.
