

Lauren Utz, Director of Compliance, Delaware North lutz@delawarenorth.com

Lauren Utz currently serves as the Director of Compliance for Delaware North, overseeing the compliance responsibilities for the global company, including all of its gaming operations. In addition to casinos, Lauren has worked for a variety of different types of regulated financial institutions, including automobile insurance company and banking institutions. Prior to joining Delaware North, Lauren was a Vice President at Bank of America, managing a geography of 25 financial centers and assisting a New York state multi-million dollar AML investigation. She works directly with regulators, internal and external auditors, as well as inside and outside counsel. She has participated in and overseen various IRS and FinCEN BSA/AML audits and investigations connected to gaming properties. Lauren has a passion for understanding regulations and helping to ensure that her company is compliant in their processes, practices, and culture. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of South Florida.