

Stacey Ann Tovino

Professor of Law

The University of Oklahoma College of Law

Professor Stacey Tovino joined the faculty at The University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2020. She is a leading expert in health law, bioethics, and the medical humanities and has particular expertise in the civil, regulatory, operational, and financial aspects of health law. Professor Tovino's current research focuses on patient privacy and health information confidentiality, COVID-19 and the law, mental health law, and health technology and the law.

An elected member of the American Law Institute, Professor Tovino is formally trained in both law and the medical humanities. She publishes her interdisciplinary research in textbooks, casebooks, encyclopedias, law reviews, medical and science journals, and ethics and humanities journals. Professor Tovino's recent non-symposium scholarship has placed in Duke Law Journal (2021), Alabama Law Review (2020), Notre Dame Law Review (2019), Iowa Law Review (2019), Alabama Law Review (2018), Washington and Lee Law Review (2017), Minnesota Law Review (2016), Boston College Law Review (2016), and Washington Law Review (2016). An enthusiastic teacher, Professor Tovino earned law school-wide teaching awards in 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, and 2020.

Within the legal academy, Professor Tovino has served as Chair of the AALS Section on Law and Mental Disability (2009), Chair of the AALS Section on Torts and Compensation Systems (2018), Chair-Elect of the AALS Section on Law, Medicine, and Health Care (2021), Chair-Elect of the AALS Section on Law and Mental Disability (2021), Chair-Elect of the AALS Section on BioLaw (2021), Secretary-Treasurer of the AALS Section on Law and the Humanities (2021), and Executive Committee Member of the AALS Section on Teaching Methods (2020-2021). Within the bioethics academy, Professor Tovino recently completed a two-year term on the Planning Committee of the American Society for Bioethics and Humanities (2018-2020).

Learn more about Professor Stacey Ann Tovino here.