

Susan Vinci

Chief Privacy Officer

Verizon

Sue Vinci is the Chief Privacy Officer at Verizon. Under Sue's leadership, the Verizon Privacy Office is responsible for the company's global privacy program and provides legal guidance to Verizon's cybersecurity and security organizations.

Sue earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Villanova University, with a major in political science. She attended Seton Hall University School of Law, where she was a member of the Law Review and graduated with honors. After a judicial clerkship in the New Jersey Appellate Division, she worked at the law firm of Shanley & Fisher, P.C., in Morristown, New Jersey. She has been with Verizon since 2002.